

Interfaith Peace Walk For Jewish-Muslim Reconciliation

Philadelphia, PA
Sunday, May 2, 2004, at 1:00 p.m.

PRAYERS FOR PEACE. MUSIC. REFRESHMENTS.

We invite people of all faiths to join us on a spiritual journey.

We will walk 3 miles from Al-Aqsa Mosque, (1501 Germantown Avenue above Third and Girard) to Congregation Rodeph Shalom (615 N. Broad St.), with stops at the Liberty Bell and St. Augustine's Church. As we walk we will lament war and the loss of life. We will pray for the safety and freedom of all people. We will embrace hope, not fear. The true pathway of peace is God's desire for love and justice, not military might. Join with us to show that peace between people of all faiths is possible.

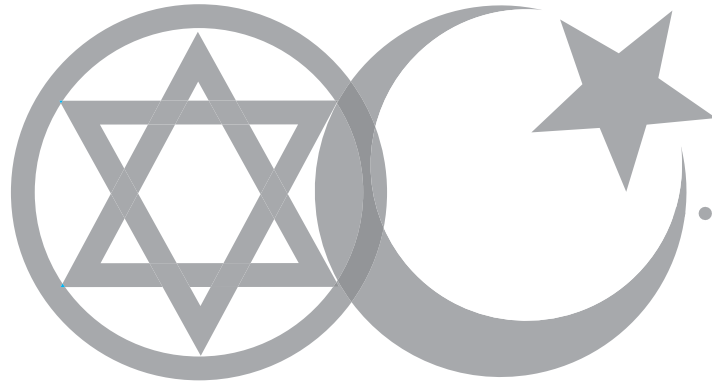

Let us call out Salaam. Let us call out Shalom.

Let us call out Peace in the language of Love.

Buses or vans will be available to drive people who are unable to walk, as well as to transport people from Congregation Rodeph Shalom back to their cars at the Al-Aqsa Mosque. PLEASE WEAR WHITE (at least white shirts). Carry water and snacks to share. Banners/signs are invited to say the words for peace: Salaam, Shalom, Peace. No political banners.
